

GETTING TO DAVIDSON HOUSE...

...BY AIR

Heathrow is 27 miles by road from Reading, Gatwick is accessible by hourly train service or by road via M4 and M25.

...BY TRAIN

Davidson House is a five minute walk from Reading Station.

There is a direct service from Paddington every 15 minutes with a journey time of 25 minutes.

...FROM THE NORTH

- › Follow the A4074 into Reading until you reach the traffic lights on Bridge Street.
 - › Turn right on to the A4155.
 - › At the roundabout take the second exit onto Caversham Road and at the next roundabout take the second exit again continuing on Caversham Road.
 - › Keep going straight for a mile staying in the right hand lane as you approach the traffic lights, going onto the fly-over and passing the Oracle Shopping Centre down on your left.
 - › At the left hand bend, where the traffic lights are, bear left and go over the bridge and take the immediate slip road to the left before the next set of traffic lights down into Kings Road.
 - › Follow Kings Road and take the second right into Abbey Road.
 - › Follow the road around and take the first left into the one way system behind Forbury Square.
 - › As you pass the back of Davidson House take the right hand turning and follow the signs into the underground parking entrance.
-

...FROM THE SOUTH

- › Leave the M4 motorway and go straight into the A3290 until you enter Reading.
 - › Go straight over at the first island and after 400 yards take the first exit off the roundabout into the A4 (London Road).
 - › Turn right into Sidmouth Street and continue on the A329 Queens Road.
 - › Bear left into Kings Road.
 - › Follow Kings Road and take the 2nd right into Abbey Road.
 - › Follow the road around and take the first left into the one way system behind Forbury Square.
 - › As you pass the back of Davidson House take the right hand turning and follow the signs into the underground parking entrance.
-